PREFACE.

For several years searches were made in England in the attempt to trace the ancestry of William and Ozias Goodwin, early emigrants to New England, and who were of the company that settled the town of Hartford, Connecticut.

As an indication of the extensive researches made, it may be stated that abstracts were taken from 255 parish registers in 23 counties and from 1900 wills and administrations in the principal Probate Court, the Prerogative Court of Canterbury, and of the courts in 33 counties, also from other numerous sources as stated in the list of contents.

Among those engaged in the search were Col. Joseph L. Chester, Rev. Augustus Jessopp, D.D., William Brigg, Joseph J. Muskett, M.D., Oswald Barron, of England, and Capt. Charles H. Townshend, Henry F. Waters, Lothrop Withington and Frank Farnsworth Starr of America.

Of those above named, Mr. Starr is supposed to be the only one now living and to him has been entrusted the task of arranging the material and supervising the printing thereof. As he saw only a very small part of the records that were examined he should not be held responsible for any errors that may appear in these abstracts.

As a result of these investigations it is now known that William Goodwin was twice married. His first wife, to whom he was married November 7, 1616, was Elizabeth White, sister of John White of Hartford, Conn., and Hadley, Mass., and also of the wives of Joseph Loomis and John Porter of Windsor, Conn., as shown by entries on pages 37, 43, and 44 of this work. His second wife was Susannah, probably widow of Rev. Thomas Hooker of Hartford, Conn., and to whom Goodwin was married after December 9, 1654.*

On page 478 is a fac-simile of the signature of William Goodwin as a witness to the will of Samuel Emery of Black Notley, Essex county, England which was made April 20, 1627.

* County Court Record, vol. 2, pp. 59-61, State Secretary's Office, Hartford.

Goodspeed - 25.00 (3 Vols)

The reader will notice the similarity of this signature to those shown on page 40 of "The Goodwins of Hartford, Conn." Black Notley is only one and one half miles from Braintree where Goodwin is supposed to have resided at that date.

On page 1123 is a document showing the transfer in June, 1632, by John "Tailcott" and wife Dorothy, William "Goodwyn" and wife Elizabeth, of lands in Braintree and the adjoining parish of Bocking. In 1632 Trinity Sunday came on May 27. Also on pages 1174-77 will be seen extracts from the Commissary Court of Essex and Herts concerning William Goodwin, William Lewis, John Steele, John Talcott and William Wadsworth, all of whom later became residents of Hartford, Connecticut.

The English material has been found so extensive that a careful index has been made to render it easily accessible.

WILSON.

On the south side of the Vestry Door is a brass with the following inscription:—

Ephitaphium Anne Willson

Quoe.

An erthly lyffe with erth on erth, nott ledd in erthly wyse,
Now erth in erth doth lye a heape tyll erth frome erth aryse,
Nott soule but corps dyd yeld to death: now deadly fury past,
Eternall lyffe the soule enjoyes and fame in death doth laste,
What parent or what place of byrth: Myles Wilson, brystow Towne,
In plesaunt place from worships race descend the daughter downe.
Lett place gyve place, lett parent passe: go fame whilest brithe is riffe.
Sownd once agayne thy troumpe of prayse: comend her godly lyffe,
Oh prayses yeld, for death and lyffe of her that lyves by fame,
Now skyes the soule, the grave ye corps, this stone conteyns her name.

Obiit 12 Noveber.

1569.

It will be seen that the above is an acrostic, the first letters of the lines making up the name Anne Wilson. The entry of the burial is found in the Register for 1569 "November, Ann Wilson the 20th day."

ON WALL OF CHANCEL:
(Mourning figure)

Beneath this marble are deposited the remains of HARVEY GOODWIN ESQ.,
Attorney at law.
Soundness of judgement, and strictest integrity
a peculiar suavity of manners,
the humble faith of a Christian,
a heart overflowing with benevolence,
and a life given to deeds of mercy and charity,
were the characteristics of the man, whose loss the town of Lynn deplores and to whom more than 200 of his friends anxious to perpetuate the lesson of his virtues have united to erect this monument of their esteem.
He died on the 16th of April 1819. Aged 63 years

At the west end of this church, parts within the Tower, and covered here and there with benches are two flat stones of early 17th century work with wide marginal inscriptions, on each is a shield very much worn, but the fesse is perfectly visible, and in the base of one is also clearly to be distinguished "three ——— heads erased." They may be lions or anything else. I notice in Burke the following. "Gooding, Gooden or Goodwin of Whershed, Deback and Cheffield, county Suffolk. Or a fesse between six lions heads erased gules." With the usual allowance for bad spelling, I presume he means Whersted, Debach and Charsfield.

I. Shield, much worn, of Goodwyn. "Here lyeth the Body of ——— youngest sonne of Robert Gooding ——— the 26th of January —39 (1639?).

II. Shield much worn of Goodwyn. ——— Richard Gooding son of Robert Gooding who departed ———.

Beneath the shield of this are some additional inscriptions much worn —— "——— ding, son of the said Richard ——— who departed this life ——— 32."

Just outside in the yard, eastward of the south porch lies a stone evidently cast out of the church which has the wide marginal inscription and shield like the others, the latter also much worn.

III. Shield much worn of Goodwyn. "Here lyeth the Body of — Robert Gooding late of this parish, Saltfiner, who departed this lyfe the xxvii day of August 1618, Aetatis 80."

(a long verse of poetry on this tomb)

"And whereas she promised to give me a hundred poundes at the daie of hir mariage and a hundred poundes within one yere towardes the mariage of my daughters and Gwynne hir friende promised the performance of the same as I haue a bill of his hande to shewe for the performance of the same and that he wolde se it performed if that I wolde give him a Satten dublett which he hath received in ernest to performe his promise and as he further promised in the fleete before my cosen Yonge and one Smithe and in consideracon of the same I made hir an obligacon by the handes of Mighell Locke and I and my sonne bounde vnto her in two thousandes poundes that she shoulde haue all my lande out of the citie of London after my disceas and my wyves that shalbe at the houre of my deathe. This was done the night before they were maried and delivered it as our two dedes vpon hir promises that she wolde pay vnto me the said two hundred poundes which she never did, nor noe peny thereof, but hath bestowed that litle she had vpon hir gownes of tufte taffeta and kyrtles of satten and vpon sumptuous apparrell of hir husbande in rydinge and roninge a brode and not to be ruled and to lyve with me as one of my children and familie and thus has she vndone hir husbande and spent that litel she had which was but fortie poundes and xlij^{li} came to hir handes from Mr. Alderman Harvey and from Mr. Parry which was all to litle to pay there riotous doings and charges so that I haue spent on them over and aboue six score poundes in redie money for the payment of wch I solde twentie poundes a yere in London for the discharge of the same, and when they sawe I beganne to cut them shorter she was gonne And therefore the bonde I made is not my dede and voide in lawe so sone as they were maried, and although it were voide in lawe by reason she was the next daie maried yet it is not voide in truthe and honestie if that she had paide me the saide two hundred poundes according to hir faithfull promise and in that consideracon I made the bonde and ment as truelie to a made it good if that she had paide the mony for the mariage of my daughters accordinglie for her mony she hathe maried my son and for hir bonde she muste paie me two hundred poundes if she can recouer hir bonde which was not delivered as my dede vnlesse I had the mony accordinglie she knowinge by hir councell before she was maried the bonde to be voide as sone as the were maried and that I might put them oute of my dore the next daye for aniethinge conteyned in that bonde I confesse the same and said what assurance haue I for my monie youe may cosen me thereof after you haue maried my sone and paie me never a grote. I do not think ye wolde so doe, and she saide no god for byd, so saide I god for byde that I should turne youe out of my dores and to give my landes from my sonne and heire well saide she I will truste yo and I saide to hir againe that I wolde truste hir all tho I should lose all and yet I do not think so as appered for w^{t} in sixteene daies after they were maried I bestowed sixscore poundes in furnishinge on them what reason were that after my decease and my wifes and hir husbandes, that she should haue an enioyne all my landes out of the citie of London during hir lyfe lease lande onlie excepted from all my children and she having none and not to pay me the saide two hundred poundes she promised for the marriage of my other daughters and therefore without payment of ij^{Cli} to be distributed amonge my daughters vnmaried My will is that she shall haue noe assurance of lyving for terme of hir life after our deceasses vnles the lawe doe give it hir, and if the lawe doe give it hir then I trust the same lawe will give my saide daughters that are vnmarried the CC^{li} with the damages for the witholding of the same euer synce which somes of money so recou'ed i frely give nowe among all my daughters porcion porcion like as well to them that are maryed as to them that are unmaryed anythinge in this will to the contrarie notwithstanding for she shall nowe truste to hir husbandes goodness, and myn she haue loste." Lease of Redinges not to be sold but to wife Anne Goodwyn paying Bishop of london his rent and to three daughters Jane Goodwyn, Dorrate Goodwyn and Margret Goodwyn £60 each, also ditto to Rychard Kynge and John Kinge my daughter two sonnes, also £60 to my daughter Whihill and her childe, all to be paide in fyvetene yeres and after said £300 is paide out of Redings, executors to make no forfeitures and to make rent £25 a yeare, the lease to sonne William Goodwyn if he be no letter or disturber of his mother and sisters but mayntayne them to his power etc. As to landes to sone William Goodwyn for life, farme house, Berehouse, myll house, barne and stable, ingresse, egresse and regresse, to orcharde on west side of same house and the little felde adioyning orcharde had with the Berehouse, garden winter felde, Chappell felde, hill felde, great Grove adioyning the hope yarde, the hop yarde with bottome newe stocked called Goodwyns vale, two feldes next Hollicks with wood landes, all on North side of Muswell grete Capitall House. Be it knowne that whereas I Moses Wall of Brayntree in the County of Essex Clothier have made my last Will and Testam^{t}. in writinge bearing date the sixteenth day of September last past and have thereby charged my wife yf she takes upon her to be my Execut^{r}. with the paym^{t}. of legacies to my twoe daughters (viz to each) of them three hundred and fiftie pounds a peece) And to lay out foure hundred pounds for a purchase of lands and tenem^{ts}. as by the same my last Will may appeare Nowe havinge since considered wth myselfe that much of my estate doth lye in wares ready made and in debts and that yf there shall happen contrary to my expectation to be losse in the debte wch are owing unto me in the sale or utteringe of anie of my wares wch are ready made and lying by me It is not my meaning that the whole burthen and losse thereof should lye upon my wife Executo^{r}. Therefor I doe hereby declare and expresse my meaninge therein to be That whatsoever loss shall happen in and by the said debts and sale or utteringe of anie of the said wares that the same shalbe equallie and indifferentlie borne and abated by my twoe daughters out of their severall legacies and out of the CCCC^{li} to be laide out for the purchase of lande and by my wife out of Twoe hundred pounds beinge so much as I account her parte will amount unto out of the personall estate wch shee shall have as Executo^{r} every one of them proporconably accordinge to the losse And yf there shall happen to be such losse in and by the saide debts and sale or utteringe of the saide wares and therby soe much abatem^{t} that my saide twoe daughters may not have and receive of my wife Executo^{r} CCC^{li} a peece of their severall legacies of CCCC^{li} Then my will and meaning is further that my son Moses his heirs or assignes out of my Coppihold messuage lande and tenem^{te}s in Litle Bromeley in the saide County of Essex shall within twoe yeares nexte after the decease of the said wife pay unto either of my saide twoe daughters wch shall be then livinge att or in my nowe dwelling house in Brayntree fiftie pounde a peece or soe much money not exceedinge 50^{li} a peece as shall make up their severall legacies CCC^{li} a peece and yf my said sonne Moses his heires or assignes shall faile in the paym^{t} and shall not pay within the tyme aforesaid the said several summes of 50^{li} unto my saide twoe daughters or soe much (not exceedinge 50^{li} a peece) as shall make upp their severall legacies CCC^{li} a peece Then my minde is and I give and bequeath my said Coppihold messuage lands & tenem^{ts} in Litle Bromeley wth the appurtenances to my saide twoe daughters and theire heires for ever And yf my saide sonne Moses his heires & assignes shall pay such money as aforesaid to one of my said daughters & shall make defaulte of paym^{t} therof to the other Then I give and bequeath the one halfe and moity of my said coppihold messuage lande and tenem^{ts} in Litle Bromeley aforesaid to her my said daughter wch shall be unpaide and to her heires for ever And for and concerninge all other things in my saide last Will mencioned (other then this explanacion of my Will and meaninge) I doe by this presente Codicill confirme and ratifie the said laste Will

And my will is that this Codiale or Scedule be and be accounted & adiudged to be parcell of my last Will as if the same were there in mencioned. In witnes whereof to this presente Codicill I have sett my hand & seale the sixteenth day of October Anno Domini 1623—Moses Wall (LS)—Sealed signed & published in the presence of us W. Lyngwood—John Spring—George Stares.

The will together with codicil attached was probated before the Rev.
